Phifer Pavitt Wine 'Date Night' Sauvignon Blanc

July 29, 2014

CATHERINE BUGUE

It's time to pull out the calendar and make a date. It doesn't have to be a date date. Whether it's with a colleague you see all the time, but never seem to talk to, or a friend you've been promising to see for months, wine is for sharing and this wine is for date night — no matter how you define it.

Phifer Pavitt's sauvignon blanc ($30) has intense flavors of ripe pears, a rich mouth feel and balancing freshness, making it a lively, delicious choice for whatever you decide to do: Take it to dinner, sip it as you try out a new recipe at home, or stash it in a bag and enjoy it outdoors with a bit of goat cheese and sourdough bread.

Go ahead and make that date!
